Navy Department Directives
General Headquarters
No. 210

March 25, 1943
Chief of Naval General Staff, NAGANO, Osami

Instructions to Commander of China Area Fleet YOSHIDA.

1. The plan of operations of the Imperial Navy for the third stage of military operations in the Greater East Asia War is decided on as shown in Annex No. 1
2. The Commander of the China Area Fleet shall operate in accordance with the plan of operations in Annex No. 2.

Annex No. 1

Plan of Operations of the Imperial Navy for the third stage of military operations in the Greater East Asia War.

(Omitted, as it is same as Annex No. 1 of Navy Department Directive, General Headquarters, No. 209).

Annex No. 2

Plan of operations to be followed by the China Area Fleet based on the plan of operations of the Imperial Navy for the third stage of military operations in the Greater East Asia War.

1. Military Operations against U.S.A., Great Britain and China.

1. As a whole, a rapid stabilization of the various occupied districts shall be sought for under the present situation and at the same time, the blockade against the enemy shall be continued and efforts made to crush the enemy plan to continue the war.

2. Strict precaution shall be taken against the movements of the enemy air forces in China and if possible, efforts should be made to destroy them at the opportune moment as well as to adopt defensive measures against them as much as possible.

3. Navigation along the Chinese coasts shall be safeguarded and at the same time, the utilization of the Chinese coasts by enemy vessels and planes shall be prevented.

4. As regards the defense of the French holdings at CHIAO CHOWAN, the China Area Fleet shall cooperate with France, and the enemy reinforcement and supply to Hainan Island shall be cut off as well thereby hastening the establishment of peace in the Island, coordinating with the results of the positive mop-up operations on the Island.

5. The above various operations shall be enforced in cooperation with the Army, if necessary, and regarding the convoy of the Army's sea transport, etc., the China Area Fleet shall cooperate with the Combined Fleet, when necessary.

II. The Operations in the case of opening hostilities against the U.S.S.R. during the operations against U.S.A., Great Britain and China. (Operations B)

1. The China Area Fleet shall be in charge of convoying the sea transport of army troops to be transferred from the China Area. Protection of sea traffic along the North China coasts shall also be reinforced.

2. Excepting for the opportune adjustment of battle lines along with the reduction of a portion of the Army occupied areas, as a general rule, the operations shall be carried on in conformity with the plan of operations against the U.S.A., Great Britain and China set forth in No. I.

MAKIDA, Commander-in-Chief of OSAKA Guard Station,
KAWASE, Commander-in-Chief of OMINATO Guard Station,
TAKAGI, Commander-in-Chief of MAKO Guard Station.

1. The plan of operations of the Imperial Navy for the third stage of military operations in the Greater East Asia War is decided on as shown in Annex No. 1.

2. Units of the various Naval Stations and Guard stations shall operate in accordance with the plan of operations set forth in Annex No. 2.

Annex No. 1

Plan of Operations of the Imperial Navy for the third stage of military operations in the Greater East Asia War.

(Omitted, as it is the same as Annex No. 1 of Navy Department Directive, General Headquarters No. 209).

Annex No. 2

Plan of Operations to be followed by the units of the various Naval stations and Guard stations based on the plan of operations of the Imperial Navy for the third stage of military operations in the Greater East Asia War.

I. Operations Against the U.S.A., Great Britain and China.

1. The strict defense of the strategic points in their respective districts and the strict protection of sea transport shall be enforced, and the units shall cooperate with the combined fleet and the China Area Fleet regarding the operations in the areas in their charge. As to the outline of the above mentioned operations, it is in conformity with the "Outline of Operations of Home Units During the Greater East Asia War" which is an attached document of Naval Department Directives, General Headquarters No. 161.

2. Strict precautions shall be taken against enemy air raids on Japan proper.

3. As regards defense along the coasts of Japan proper, especially on solitary islands in the North and in the South, strict guard shall be enforced, keeping in close contact, with the Imperial Army.

II. Operations in the case of opening hostilities with the U.S.S.R. during the operations against U.S.A., Great Britain and China. (Operations B)

1. Particularly strict watch should be kept against Russian submarines and airplanes in the districts in their respective charge.

2. Coordinating with the operations of the overseas units, it will cooperate in the opportune transfer of air forces and other necessary forces to the necessary points.

3. Besides the above, the operations shall be carried out in accordance with the plan of operations against the U.S.A., Great Britain and China.
